Foreword

This statistical report covers detailed statistics of major importers of spices during 1996 - 2000. Export data are also available for few selected countries with significant re-exports. Caution is, therefore drawn, to consider re-exports from certain countries which may result in double counting of spices handled by traders.

The report provides additional information on world unit prices of spices and market shares of major suppliers and importing countries/areas in the spice trade.

These data have been based on the Standard International Trade Classification Revision 3 (SITC) and the main source used is COMTRADE Data Base of the United Nations Statistical Office (UNSO). All values are in current US dollars while the volumes are given in metric tons.

ITC: Your Partner in Trade Development

The International Trade Centre (ITC) is the technical cooperation agency of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) and the World Trade Organization (WTO).

ITC supports developing and transition economies, and particularly their business sectors, in their efforts to realize their full potential for developing exports and improving import operations.

ITC works in six areas:

- ▶ Product and market development
- ▶ Development of trade support services
- ▶ Trade information
- ▶ Human resource development
- ▶ International purchasing and supply management
- ▶ Needs assessment, programme design for trade promotion
